Golfers Organise

With the arrival of spring the various outdoor sports societies are reorganizing their forces for the approaching season. The Strathmore Golf Club met in the Town Hall on Thursday evening, there being a good attendance.

Officers elected were as follows: President—G. H. Patrick; Vice-President—H. F. McDonald; Secretary-Treasurer—L. B. O. Loshin-Groves committee—A. B. Poote, R. Hill, J. Mackenzie.

Social Committee—M. Smedman, Givens

Patrick, and William H. Moore, F. Young, L. T. Williams.

The price of season tickets was as follows: Open $5.00, ladies and juniors (under 20 years) $2.00.

Plans for the improvement of the course were taken up, and the grounds committee were active next morning, marking out the new tees, and arranging to clean and clean a fairway. Volunteers were found for the work of putting the greens in shape, each green being deputed to two members to put into shape. They report plenty of men willing to do the work. The golfers are to be organized in an informal way, no master, and at the start some difficulty was experienced in getting suitable links, but the links are now located on the north side of the town, not far from the golf course, with room to expand, and there can be developed into a good sporting course.

Mr. John Keen's family again. All of Mr. John Keen's family have had a touch, excepting Mr. Keen, who has toughed it through being "chased cook and bottle washer." The golfers are to be reorganized, and the new course will be laid out in winter again.

Spring Prospects

There had been some expectations that work would start at the beginning of the week, but because of some harrowing, very little had been done. The work on the new bridge was also started on Saturday, which delayed spring work for some days.

The moisture, however, was very great, especially, and it was ensured that a good start for the work was made. The men are enthusiastic and look for a good showing this season.

The Lions' Seniors also held a meeting,

but decided to leave the baseball matters in a later date.

Everyone in the district was represented from the 10th division and are looking forward to a good spring.

Mr. G. Melendy recently returned from the States where he has been on a short visit.

The Carseland school has three new chairs. The Johnson's who are living on the old Homestead Ranch, have sold their property to the newcomers. They don't mind it.

The new bridge is half built, and at the start some difficulty was experienced in getting suitable links, but the links are now located on the north side of the town, not far from the golf course, with room to expand, and there can be developed into a good sporting course.

Mr. Chas. Price started plowing on Friday and made several acres look black and seemed businesslike till the snow began to fall and on Saturday everything appeared to have changed in winter again.

CARSELAND NOTES

5 baseball meetings were held in the C.R. dep't on Friday evening, the 10th. The team selected their officers, who are as follows: William Phillips, manager; W. E. Hill, business manager. A. C. McLean, coach. The team were also invited to meet after the ball games.

All the men are enthusiastic and look for a good showing this season.

The Lions' Seniors also held a meeting,

but decided to leave the baseball matters in a later date.

IRRICANA NEWS

The masons dined and "at home" held on Friday evening was a great success. The patroresses were: Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Archibald, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Hallam, Mrs. Galloway and Mrs. Page.

Some of the farmers of this vicinity have commenced sowing already. The recent snows will aid much in moistening the ground.

If the Irricana boys keep up the good work of killing asperges, as they have been doing during the past week,

they are not only going to win the prize, but also doing much to raise the country's prestige. One of the boys sowed over fifty asperges in less than one week.

Mr. and Mrs. Prickett and family moved onto their farm in Keoma on Friday.

Some of the members of the Presbyterian church have been making arrangements for the purchasing of a new organ for the church.

The Irricana young people on Thursday evening were very much enjoyed,

and a good crowd attended it.

The ladies old held a banana and strawberry tea on Saturday in the U.P. A. hall.

Concert at Turner

Very heavy roads, the result of the recent thaw, affected the attendance at the Turner annual concert, held in the hall on Saturday evening. But if the attendance was not what it might have been, the programme exceeded all expectations. Barely has such an excellent entertainment been given in the district. Mr. Frank Franklin, conductor.

The programme opened with chorus, "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," sung with much taste by the club members, comprising Mrs. Raymond Kier and Misses Powers, Mrs. McWade, Mrs. McNaughton, Mrs. Powers, Mrs. Haley, Lawson and McNaughton. Mr. and Mrs. McKillop, Calgary, delighted the audience with their mastery of the piano. Their duets being particularly well received. Mr. and Mrs. McNaughton, along with Mr. Loucks, Calgary, also captivated the audience with their musical abilities (2 violins and piano). Mrs. Raymond Kier and Miss Powers, Calgarians, also sang solo songs with grace and feeling, while readings by Mr. McNaughton, and "Local Jokes" by Mr. McNaughton, maintained the lighter vein. Mr. C. Wright, the baritone, singer of marked ability, whose voice was well received. The soloist, delivered two solos, and the arrangement which followed was amply proof that his fine voice was fully appreciated. Something out of the ordinary cut was the rendering by Mr. Roy L. Johnson, a Jamesonian. The feature of the programme, however, was undoubtedly the singing of master David Crowe, the possessor of a voice of unusually sweet tones. This youthful vocalist gives promise of developing into a singer above the average.

The climax of a well balanced programme was the spirited rendering of the following illustrated songs by the club members, Miss Nash in the lead: "The Girl I Left Behind Me"; "Tip Toe"; "Out Where the West Begins"; "Our Queen"; "The Indian Girl"; "Rule Britannia"; "Miss Towner as Britannia"; and "O Canada". Every effort was made followed up to exact effect, supplied by the Payne brothers, Calgary, was carried on till early morning.

ATHLETIC SOCIETY

The annual meeting of the Athletic Society was held in the hall on Saturday evening, with a fair crowd in attendance. Officers for the coming year was elected. Mr. Thurston did not wish to be president for the coming year, but the meeting insisted and he was finally persuaded. Messrs. Jules and Cuthbertson were elected vice-presidents, and Mr. Del Anderson, Secretary-treasurer. A hearty vote of thanks was given to the retiring officers and to Mr. A. McLean Jr. for the use of his field. He offered the field again this year. Tennis, badminton, croquet and baseball sections will be active, as will be the football of the sport day.

The following names were being organized to the different games: Tennis, Mrs. Thurston, Mr. L. Hibton, Football, Messrs. C. Campbell, W. Hyman, Cricket, Mrs. C. Campbell, W. R. Lawrie, Badminton, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Bennett. Owing to the hard times the membership fee was reduced to half it being now $1.00, to be paid at next meeting. The next meeting will be held in August. A considerable number of prizes have already been promised.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

The annual meeting of the Sunday school took place on Sunday last. Rev. Mrs. Powers was in attendance as well as our own minister, Rev. Garden. An election of officers took place and the following were elected: Sup't. Mrs. J. A. MacLean, Sup'tress, Mrs. F. Hilton; Bible Class teacher, Mr. Ben Stoddle; Girls' teacher, Mrs. Stoddle; Boys' teacher, Mr. Gilmund. The Rev. Powers was present the evening following Sunday School. The latter gentleman brought up a proposal of having a minister located at Nightingale.

Mr. Garden's district comprises Rockyford, Tofield, Crossfield, Balzac, Nightingale and Ardmore. It is proposed to divide the district and leave the other places to Mr. Garden. It is possible to finance this, the trustees agreed to the proposal.

There will be an Easter social held at the hall next Saturday, in aid of the Sunday school. No charge for admission. Easter eggs will be sold and lunch served; there will also be games, music etc.

NIGHTINGALE U.F.W.A.

The U.F.W.A. met last Saturday at noon at the Hall. The business included drawing up a programme for the next three meetings, and appointing a representative to meet the Hon. H. H. Holman. Mr. Ben Stoddle being elected for this position. It was decided to leave the election of directors for the local to the next meeting to be held Saturday afternoon in the hall, April 22nd. At this meeting two papers will be given, one on the new oil well on Gordon's Ranch which will also be served.

Ladies Bowling Tournament

The finals of the Ladies Bowling tournament took place in the Hub Building, April 22nd. There was much excitement, both a large attendance, spectators and much excitement as the fate ones trundled the bowls down the alleys.

The contest proved a great success, several of the ladies devoting afternoon and evenings to practice prior to the games.
